Title of article: ____________________________________________________________

Author(s) of article: ______________________________________________________

I have seen and read the article that has been submitted for consideration to the Occupational Therapy Now. I agree to have my photograph(s) or the photograph(s) of my dependent published as part of this article if it is accepted for publication. I understand the following:

1. I will not receive payment for the photograph(s).
2. The article may be published in a journal that is mailed to about 7,000 people worldwide.
3. I know the purpose of the article is to help people learn more about occupational therapy.
4. The article will not be used for advertising by the Canadian Association of Occupational Therapists.
5. I can revoke this consent before the article is published by writing to the Editor (address below) no later than 3 months prior to the publication date for the article. I can contact the Editor to find out when the article will be published.
6. I cannot revoke this consent after the article is published.

Three copies of this consent form are to be signed by:

1. Each person in the photograph or his/her guardian, and
2. The first author of the article.

One copy is for you to keep for your own records. One copy is for the first author of the article. The remaining copy is to be sent to the editor of the journal. The author is responsible to send the form to the editor.

Name (please print): ______________________________________________________

Signature: ____________________________________________________________________________

First Author (please print): __________________________________________________________

Signature: ____________________________________________________________________________

Date: ___________________________________________________________________

Return this form to: Flora To-Miles, Managing Editor, Occupational Therapy Now
Fax: 613-523-2552 Email: otnow@caot.ca  Contact Flora at 1-800-434-2268 ext. 243