

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	III
Chapter Authors	V
Table of Contents	VII
Introduction	XI
A   Understanding the Illness	1
1. Alzheimer’s Disease and Related Dementias	3
Carol Bowlby Sifton
1.1 Disorders causing dementia	4
1.2 Epidemiology of dementia	5
1.3 Alzheimer’s disease	6
1.4 What is Alzheimer’s disease?	6
1.5 The Progression of Alzheimer’s disease	7
1.6 Causes of Alzheimer’s disease	9
1.7 Diagnosis of ADRD	10
1.8 The continuing abilities of persons with ADRD	11
1.9 Deficits of persons with ADRD	19
2. Communication	25
Carol Bowlby Sifton
2.1 Communication skills preserved	26
2.2 Guidelines to communication	27
3. Understanding the Person – A Systematic Approach to Managing Behaviour	31
Sylvia Davidson
3.1 Basic understanding	32
3.2 Responsive behaviours	32
3.3 Systematic framework	32
3.4 Application to aggressive behaviour associated with an activity of daily living	35

B   The Occupational Therapy Role	39
4. Theories and Models of Care: Personhood Theory and Positive Person Work	41
Rona Macdonald
4.1 Introduction	41
4.2 Personhood theory: Nuts, bolts and vision	43
4.3 Responding to personhood theory: Questions and issues	50
4.4 Theoretical quandaries	52
4.5 Conclusion	54
5. Theories and Models of Care: Person-Environment-Occupation (P-E-O)	63
Jennifer Ireland
5.1 Introduction	63
5.2 Person-Environment-Occupation Model: Lack of Fit	66
5.3 Person-Environment-Occupation Model: Optimal Fit	67
5.4 Conclusion	67
6. Assessment of Cognitive Impairment and Changes in Functional Performance	69
Debbie Hebert
6.1 Bottom-up assessment	70
6.2 Screens	70
6.3 The Mini-Mental State Exam (MMSE)	71
6.4 The Montreal Cognitive Assessment (MoCA)	72
6.5 The Rowland Universal Dementia Assessment Scale (RUDAS)	72
6.6 Summary of screening tools	77
6.7 Larger screens and domain-specific standardized assessments	77
6.8 Domain-specific tests	78
6.9 Top-down assessment	82
6.10 Standardized tests of occupation and occupational performance	82
6.11 Assessment in the naturalistic environment	82
6.12 Structured tests of observation	83
6.13 Self report/proxy report	84
6.14 Summary of occupation and occupational performance assessments	88
7. Occupations, Activity and Health	91
Carol Bowlby Sifton
7.1 Occupations, ADRD and occupational therapy	91
7.2 Rehabilitation/retraining with persons with ADRD	92
7.3 Why do we do things?	93
7.4 Alzheimer's disease and related dementias and occupation	94
7.5 Guidelines for enabling activity engagement	96
7.6 The activities of daily living	98

7.7 Using reminiscence as a tool	102
7.8 Using sensory stimulation as a tool	103
7.9 Selecting activities	104
7.10 Resources	105
8. Approaches to Dementia Programming &amp; the Link to Occupational Therapy	109
Amy Cockburn
8.1 Montessori-Based Dementia Programming®	109
8.1.1 Introduction	109
8.1.2 What is Montessori-Based Dementia Programming®?	109
8.1.3 Link to Occupational Therapy	110
8.2 Snoezelen®/Multisensory Stimulation Therapy (MSST)	111
8.2.1 Introduction	111
8.2.2 What is Snoezelen®?	111
8.2.3 Link to Occupational Therapy	111
8.2.4 Supporting evidence	112
8.3 Summary	112
9. Driving and Dementia	113
Stephanie Ross & Bindhu Sadasivan
9.1 General information	113
9.2 How to discuss driving with individuals with dementia and their caregivers	114
9.3 Assessment and screening	116
9.4 Reporting requirements/responsibility	117
9.5 Driving intervention strategies	118
9.6 Additional resources	119
C   Supporting the Caregiver	137
10. Caregiving as Occupation	139
Carol Bowlby Sifton
10.1 Realities, facts and figures of caregiving	141
10.2 Markers of caregiving	141
10.3 Caregivers and persons with ADRD: A Canadian perspective	142
10.4 Unique challenges for the caregiver of the person with ADRD	143
11. Caregiver as Client	145
Carol Bowlby Sifton
11.1 Support	145
11.2 Caregiver education	147
11.3 Respite	147
11.4 Future care planning	148
11.5 Resources	149

D   Special Topics	153
12. Delirium, Depression &amp; Dementia – The 3D's	155
Sylvia Davidson
12.1 Delirium	155
12.2 Depression	156
13. Falls and the Use of Restraints	159
Sylvia Davidson
13.1 Falls	159
13.2 Restraints	160
13.3 Further Reading	161
14. Ethics and Dementia Care	163
Kevin Reel
14.1 What is ethics?	164
14.2 Invisible but observable – the nature of values and principles	164
14.3 Where does 'ethics' come from?	165
14.4 Ethical awareness	166
14.5 What's special about health care ethics?	167
14.6 What's special about ethics in occupational therapy?	167
14.7 Ethical issues commonly arising in dementia	168
14.8 Further ethical issues in dementia	171
14.9 Conclusion	174
References	177